WILL ASK FOR DATES.

St. Louis, Mo., November 28.—A new race-track, handsomer and better appointed than any St. Louis has had, is being rapidly built at the junction of Union boulevard and Natural Bridge road, and a week hence a committee will go to Chicago to seek racing dates for the season of 1904 from the Western Jockey Club.

The Union Jockey Club is the name of the new organization, which is composed of 120 business men of St. Louis that have taken more or less stock in the club and selected as president Joseph A. Duffy, a capitalist and real estate dealer representing some millions of capital. Mr. Duffy probably will head the committee that will seek dates from the Western Jockey Club. The Union Jockey Club is capitalized for $250,000, and it is proposed to expend that sum in making the new racing park the handsomest west of Saratoga.

The site is a beautiful park of 102 acres of rolling woodland and includes a small lake, around which the mile track has been built. The timber is mostly grand oak trees, of which many in the infield had to be felled, as they obstructed the view of the back-stretch from the paddock and the grandstand.

Building the mile track was alone quite an expensive piece of work, on account of cuts and grades having to be made because of the rolling nature of the ground. It was built by Michael Hannick, who undertook the contract for $26,000. The track was completed two weeks ago.

A $75,000 grandstand is nearing completion, the time for the contract expiring December 15. Contractor M. E. Roundtree, who put up some of the largest buildings at the St. Louis World's Fair, says he may be a few days late in finishing the stand, as there has been some delay in lumber arriving. The structural iron work was completed three weeks ago, and the great expanse of granitoid flooring has been done some time. When finished it will be one of the finest stands in the middle west. Its length is 370 feet, width 140 feet, and the height to the top of the towers that will surmount the roof will be 85 feet. The betting ring is 255 feet by 90 feet. It stands on rising ground, so there will be a fine sloping lawn from the stand to the track. The paddock lawn is large and sloping.

Captain P. J. Carmody, who is general manager of the new park, says the paddock and offices will cost $10,000 extra, and $40,000 is to be spent on building stabling for the first meeting. A tract of 35 acres on a high and healthy plateau back of the paddock and along the first furlong of the homestretch has been set apart for stables, so there will be plenty of room to build more later on if necessary. In fact there is room to put up stables for 3,500 horses, for this new park is a large place.

It is wonderfully well situated in the matter of transportation facilities, as it is reached by six street car lines and the Terminal Belt Railway runs right along one side of it. It is a mile and a half nearer the heart of the city than Delmar is, and all of ten miles nearer than the Kinloch Park track. The location and the natural beauties of the place make it an ideal site for a race course, and its promoters predict a great future for the new track.

There is one obstacle to be surmounted that may prove more difficult than they realize, and that is the securing of satisfactory dates for next year. They desire thirty days in the spring and thirty days later in the season, and as the Missouri law allows 180 days of racing at St. Louis they feel their request to the Western Jockey Club will not be unreasonable. President Duffy voices the sentiment of his fellow members by declaring: "This is a St. Louis enterprise, backed by St. Louis money, and if anyone thinks we are not entitled to a share of the racing dates that person will do well to remember that we are from Missouri. On what just grounds can the Western Jockey Club refuse us dates? Can that organization conscientiously award dates to tracks like Kinloch and Delmar and refuse us?"

That the Union Jockey Club means business is evident. People do not build a mile track at the cost of $26,000 and a grandstand for $75,000 just for amusement, and the leaders in this new enterprise declare they will race next year. State Senator J. P. Collins, who has put $5,000 into Union Jockey Club stock, sizes up the situation thus: "There are a lot of us, and every man has a pull somewhere that will count. We may not look like much to the stewards of the Western Jockey Club in Chicago, but we count for a whole lot in St. Louis."

There seems to be an evident determination to break the hold of the syndicate that for three years has enjoyed a monopoly of St. Louis racing, and it may be well for the Western Jockey Club to consider carefully the claims of the Union Jockey Club before flouting this young and vigorous organization.

A lease for eight years at $8,000 a year, with an option to purchase until July 1, 1905, has been secured on the park, which is part of the old Clark estate, lying well within the city limits and only a mile and a half beyond the Fair Grounds' race track, which, it is rumored, must soon be cut into streets and blocks.

OAKLAND RACING.

"The racing at Emeryville thus far has been fully up to expectations, the fields as a rule being large and a fair proportion of the contests close and exciting," says the San Francisco Bulletin of November 23. "The percentage of favorites that have won has been rather light, betokening sunshine for the odds-makers and gloom for the public at large. In the forty-two races decided up to date at the meeting favorites (one, Greenock, an equal choice) won fifteen, non-favorites twenty-seven, the percentage of winning favorites being .357, where .400 is the usual per cent. Odds-on favorites fared badly in the seven days, Meehanus being beaten on the first day, Matt Hogan and Albemarle on Monday, Kentilworth and Jack Demund on Tuesday, Tower of Candles Wednesday, Horton and Rollick Thursday, Don Domo Saturday—a total of nine against three successful ones at odds on, viz., Ben Mac Dhui (twice) and Matt Hogan. This would make the public chary in chancing coin on horses at a price below the even-money mark, and I rather think this is the seven-day record for defeats of horses that figured as 'morals.' Several riders new to Californians have done good work, the chief of the strangers being D. Hall, a Texas lad, who came out to ride for Barney Schreiber. He piloted eight winners out of twenty-five mounts, or a winning percentage of .320, and was, besides, second three times. Ferrell, another Texan, under contract to J. F. Newman, had twenty-seven mounts, with six wins, four seconds and one third, his percentage of wins being .222. Adkins comes third in number of wins, five, and as he had but seventeen mounts, his winning percentage is second best, viz., .295. Of the 'comers' Hildebrand is well to the fore, with four wins in eighteen mounts, his percentage being the same as Ferrell's, .222. Reed, Chandler and Jack Martin each piloted three winners, J. Lewis two (both 15 to 1 or better), Lee Jackson and Ivy Powell two each, Knapp, J. Daly, L. Spencer and Otis one each. Chandler is a wonderfully improved boy in the riding line and is certainly getting to the front at a great rate. J. Lewis can be counted upon to prove a 'star' in the riding firmament at no far distant day, while L. Spencer bids fair to become a finisher much like his brother, the 'Ice Man.' Of the light boys now here, besides those mentioned, it would be well to bear in mind that Knapp, Connell, Larsen, Kunz and Jones are sure enough good 'prospects,' and I predict that all will make big names for themselves within the next two years. Colonel Letcher's handicaps have all been great betting affairs, and most of them have been keenly contested, all of which is to the credit of the genial gentleman from Kentucky, who is certain to make a host of friends hereabouts—and keep them."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

John Oliver Keene, of Lexington, Ky., who has been training thoroughbreds for the last two seasons, and who is visiting his home, has just received a letter from D. Ilawasiski, of the Imperial Stud, in Russia, stating that it is the inclination of the Government to secure a stallion of different blood to take the place of Galtee-More, the famous horse which for the last four years has been at the head of the Imperial Stud. The writer says that the question of selling the great sire of Irish Lad, Pan-Adam, Extace, Ligia, etc., has been submitted to the acting committee, and the decision of this committee will have to be submitted to his imperial highness, the Grand Duke, but that it is certain the report will be favorably acted upon. The price quoted is 20,000 pounds. Galtee-More has out twenty-two winners, of which eleven are three-year-olds and eleven are two-year-olds. The total winnings of these youngsters on the Russian turf up to October 4 was 152,947 roubles, or about $76,000.

Trainer John W. Rogers last Tuesday shipped the racing establishment of W. C. Whitney to Aiken, S. C., where the horses will go into winter quarters. Everything was taken with the exception of Gunfire, Leonora Loring and another mare and a yearling that was ailing and will be left at Sheepshead Bay until in a better condition to stand the trip. There will be some regret among lovers of racing in the announcement that the racing days of both Gunfire and Leonora Loring are over, and that they will become matrons. When Rogers shipped the others these were left temporarily in charge of A. J. Joyner, and it is expected that they will leave before the end of the week for Kentucky.

McChesney has four companions now in his winter quarters at Gravesend. Last Tuesday morning four of the Smathers' performers from the west arrived. They are Dick Bernard, Witchcraft, Grand Opera and Stevedore. They were shipped from Memphis, where it was first intended to winter them, and all appeared to have stood the long journey remarkably well.

A NEW HANDICAP.

"In these days when there is a one-sided effort to make handicaps rather a bone of contention, notwithstanding their great popularity with the great gate paying public, it is interesting to note the Coney Island Jockey Club again setting the pace by inaugurating a brand new handicap to be run during the final week of the spring meeting of this association next season," says Sports of the Times.

"As several newspapers have stated that this is to be a 'renewal' of the Suburban Handicap, it is well to set the matter straight at once.

"It is nothing of the kind, and has practically nothing to do with that great and popular classic.

"Deeming it correct to improve and strengthen the program as much as possible, Mr. J. H. Bradford conceived the idea of offering another $10,000 added handicap to be run the final week of the spring meeting. It will close about the same time in January as the other handicaps, but with this distinction: the weights will not be allotted until after the running of the 1904 Suburban. Thus it may be said to be a handicap of handicap's results. It is in no way confined to Suburban eligibles or otherwise, but the entries will be made totally distinct, and in all except the matter of the adjusting of the weights it will be a totally distinct and differing event. That it will prove popular with the mass of owners goes without saying. It should logically fill as well as any of the important handicaps, possibly better, and congratulations are due the Coney Island Jockey Club for the most recent example of its public spiritedness by thus offering another valuable event to the owners, on lines which have assuredly proved most popular to the masses of visitors, i. e., that of the high class handicap, as at present handled and conducted."

GREAT STAKES TO CLOSE.

Two great stakes that should receive the especial attention of breeders are advertised in this edition of Daily Racing Form by the Westchester Racing Association. They are the National Stallion Stakes of 1905 and the Matron Stakes of 1906. The former closes for foals of 1903 and the latter for mares by midnight of Tuesday, December 15, 1903. These are leading and valuable stakes, and any youngster entered has its value thereby materially enhanced at once. The conditions of both are fully displayed elsewhere, and are commended to the favorable consideration of all breeders and owners.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Horsemen will crowd Lexington, Ky., next week, attracted by Fasig-Tipton Co.'s annual combination sale of thoroughbreds. Three hundred and sixty-nine head of stallions, mares, yearlings and horses in training are scheduled to be sold. Many Chicagoans will attend the sale.

President Williams says that when Ingleside opens the California Jockey Club will give two $1,000 handicaps every week, one to be run on Wednesday and the other on Saturday. There will also be other handicaps for $600 purses.

William C. Whitney has bought John E. Madden's interest in Sandringham, full brother to Diamond Jubilee. Sandringham will, therefore, be withdrawn from the Fasig-Tipton sale, advertised to take place at Lexington, Ky., next Tuesday, December 1.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"The presence of Johnny Reiff in the local racing game brought about many inquiries as to whether the crack jockey would be permitted to accept mounts on the local tracks," says the San Francisco Bulletin of November 21. "Thomas H. Williams, president of the local organization, was interviewed on the proposition last evening and said that under no consideration would any jockey, trainer or horse owner who is in ill repute on any race track be allowed to participate in the game on tracks governed or under the California Jockey Club's jurisdiction. Many labored under the impression that because the Western Jockey Club's tracks permitted Reiff and several others to participate actively, that an exception would be made, and John Reiff would be allowed to ride. Mr. Williams' firm stand settles that question for the time being at least. Reiff will remain here for several weeks, when he will go to Los Angeles and ride at the meeting at Ascot Park. The race-going public will be sorry to hear of Mr. Williams' stand, as all would like to see Johnny once again riding at the local tracks. Reiff hasn't been seen in the saddle here for several years, and at the time he last rode here was comparatively a novice, and now he has developed into one of the best riders in the world."

An interesting feature at all the recent thoroughbred sales in Lexington was the work of the Horse Breeders' Protective Association in the purchase and retirement of mares from breeding. Prior to the opening of the sales their annual meeting was held, and it now transpires that in addition to the work already reported a number of mares consigned to these sales were marked for retirement, and they have been constant attendants at the ring side until the sales closed. Having previously disposed of 486 broodmares in this fashion they added an even fifty to the list last week, making a total of 536 that have been retired from the different studs of the country since the organization of the association five years ago. The association will make a full report to the Jockey Club of the mares that have been retired, so that under the rules it will be an impossibility for the produce of these mares to be accepted for registration and hereby absolutely valueless as racehorses should any subsequent purchaser attempt to put them back in breeding.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Fred Taral is back from Austria, where he has had a good season, heading the winning jockeys with 101 mounts in 365, nearly equaling his old best record here, and has many good words to say of Austrian sport. He says: "The jockeys have to be heavy and strong to keep their mounts together over the turf tracks. The horses are much larger and heavier than American horses. A lightweight boy has very little chance, and I doubt if the best lightweight in America could win in Austria. The starting is wonderful in its perfection. The horses walk up in perfect line, and if a boy goes out of line he is set down. If it is afterward found that it was the fault of the horse, then the trainer catches it. There is scarcely a chance of a horse being at fault, for the trainers spend more time schooling than in any other training. A man will take the most valuable horses in his stable and school them for hours, and the consequence is that they form a perfect line for every start. There is one thing I like in that country, there are only four days' racing each week. They race on Sundays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and on the other afternoons we can do what we like, so long as we stay in good company; but let a jockey once be seen in a questionable resort, and everything is off with him. They keep a strict eye on both the jockeys and trainers, and it is a good thing, too." Of course, he is "glad to get back!" it would be sudden death to him if that was not italicized!

William Gerst, the Nashville brewer-turfman, owner of Brancas, Fore and Aft and other fast horses, has decided to race a stable at the coming winter meeting at New Orleans, which will be the initial appearance of this turfman's colors at the Crescent City track; or, for that matter, the first time they have ever been in competition during the cold months. The string, numbering about fifteen head, will be shipped in charge of trainer George Ham. Among the collection are several very shifty two-year-olds and four yearlings. In the former lot are Talhouet, Town Moor, Launay and Port Warden. Talhouet, winner of the Avondale Stakes at Nashville in the spring, is counted the best in the string. He will be especially prepared for the Crescent City Derby, and Mr. Gerst hopes to finish his campaign at New Orleans with a Derby victory to his credit. The yearlings, which have already been broken and tried, are promising. Each has turned a quarter as good as 0:24.

Winner—Ch. g, by Golden Garter—Misfortune (trained by F. Anderson).

Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Fortunatus won as if best at the weights, closed a big gap, caught Bon Mot tiring at the end and was going away under a drive. Bon Mot got off running and forced a fast pace, but could not withstand the winner's challenge. Paget made up a lot of ground and outlasted Paul Clifford at the end. The latter was weakly handled in the final drive. Andrattus was used up in racing with the pacemaker. Unterrock received a poor start, but showed much early speed. It was a poor start for Miladi Love. Red Damsel tired.

Winner—B. f, by Albert—Iroquois (trained by J. McLaughlin, Jr.).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Algonquin got away well today, but was reserved to the stretch, then came fast and won easing up. Bronx showed the most early speed, but tired in the stretch run. Lorette ran in improved form and finished gamely. Huapala was closing up fast at the end. Belle of Belle Meade was repeatedly shut off. Redman was shut out on the first turn and thrown back. Harmakis ran poorly.

Winner—Br. g, by Zouave—dam by Viceroy (trained by T. Meaney).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Almanzor showed the most speed and fenced in good fashion, was under a pull most of the way, but was all out and doing his best at the end. Simon Kenton will improve over this effort, is a good jumper and was a sharp contender all the way, but the journey was probably a trifle far for him. He stumbled two jumps from home and lost some ground. Morrelton Chief bumped Montrip at the turn into the stretch and was disqualified. Gypsic closed a big gap after beginning slowly. Red Hawk had a fighting chance when he went down two jumps from home.

Corrected weights—Almanzor, 155; Simon Kenton, 140; Montrip, 163; Gypsic, 163; Charles O'Malley, 163; Cheval d'Or, 163; Red Hawk, 163; Ailanthus, 153; Morrelton Chief, 147.

Went to post at 4:17. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Homestead was outrun for the first half mile, but came through next to the inside rail at the turn into the homestretch and was driving to the limit at the end to stall off Past. The latter came very wide at the turn into the homestretch. McCafferty took her all around her field and she came very fast in the last sixteenth and was catching the winner at every stride. Attila was outrun in the first half and was crowded back soon after the start, but came fast in the stretch. Anti Trust and Burgoyne ran well to the stretch. Bellario ran in improved form.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Siddons ran under restraint for a mile and a quarter, came through on the inside at the turn into the homestretch, came away with ease in the last furlong and had much in reserve at the finish. Hayward Hunter was sore when going to the post and pulled up lame, but about ran his race. Irving Mayor set the pace on sufferance and dropped back when the real struggle came. Bob Hilliard is not of much account apparently.

Winner—Ch. g, by Yankee Doodle—Nita Murphy (trained by F. Kelly).

Went to post at 2:11. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Mike Murphy broke in his stride and running on the outside dry going took the lead at the half, which he retained to the end with something in reserve. Rinaldo II. steadily improved his position finishing fast in the worst going. Snark came with a rush on the outside in the final sixteenth. Handpress was badly ridden, messed about and repeatedly bumped in the stretch and anchored in the bog near the finish. Madam Bishop failed to stay after a good display of speed. Merwan got away badly and was in the heavy going throughout. Our Pride fell away in the stretch run and was evidently short. Yellowstone can do better.

Overweights—Merwan, 4 pounds; Our Pride, 1.

Winner—Ch. c, by Colonel Wheeler—Early Rose (trained by C. T. Patterson).

Went to post at 2:35. At post 6 minutes. Start very bad. Won in a canter; second driving. Cascine, favored by the going, got away running and indulged the early pacemaker to the stretch, where he drew to the front cantering. Bearcatcher, nearly left, was quickly sent into a contending position, always being in the deep going, finished very fast and might have won with an even break. Otto Stifel showed surprising good form, sustaining very gamely a superior burst of speed almost throughout. Ebony will make good at an early day, held on steadily throughout and was an easy and close up fourth. Captain Forsee ran away before the race and was practically left, trailed his field to the stretch where he made up ground fast. Judge was prominent to the stretch turn and a dangerous contender when he swerved under the whip in an effort to beat the winner.

Cascine, show, out. Bearcatcher, show, out. Otto Stifel, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c, by Piccolo—Marcella (trained by A. J. Jackson).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Pickaway went to the front at the start, won all the way and easily stood off Waterpower in the final drive. The latter was the only serious contender throughout and showed a lot of speed, turning for home in the deep going and put up a game stretch run. Alice Cary held a forward position from the start and was probably short, will do better and is a useful filly. Oscar Tolle trailed the leaders closely, tiring in the last furlong and swerving over to the inside and likes a fast track. Shellmount finished fast. Quiet got away badly and was never dangerous. Father Wentker was practically left and only cantered the journey.

Scratched—(42895)Mildred Schultz, 106; 38270 Glendenning, 106; 42746 El Piloto, 99.
